JOINDER IN MEMORANDUM REGARDING ATTORNEY FEES

COMES NOW the undersigned counsel, William P. Morrison, who hereby supports and joins in the Memorandum Regarding Attorney Fees in Chapter 13 cases submitted on or about February 6, 2006, by the Law Office of Davis & Jones, P.C., David Berry, Jory Trease, and Justin Burton. As an attorney engaged in the practice of representing debtors in bankruptcy, including debtors in cases filed under Chapter 13, I have reviewed the subject memorandum and believe it fairly and adequately represents my position regarding the matter, although the fees set forth therein (default fees of $2750 for a basic Chapter 13 and $3500 for a business case) appear to be conservative for the increased work involved in handling Chapter 13 cases for debtors.
